Comments:	Good morning i have reviewed the plans related to this extension and am concerned as the rear garden first floor single story extension looks like the window of one of the bedrooms is going to overlook our property and cause an impact on our privacy. It is quite difficult to see on the plans where the windows are situated and it seems that one of the bedrooms to the rear of this property, will have a view directly into our garden and rear bedroom. I know this may not be a major issue but to us this is very significant. Regards Clare Clarke

Kind regards
