Reasons for comment:	- Loss of General Amenity
Comments:	This is my wall to my property which is also my fire escape route. My wall is standard height but the new trellis comes over and above by 2 feet which means it is 7 feet tall. This is also my only view out of the house and I am looking at a fence for no reason. I have 2 cats who can no longer get out of my courtyard to venture as cats do! They have both been injured on this fence causing damage to them and have resulted in visits to the vets. I would like this fence either removed or taken down to the 6 feet regulated height.

Kind regards
