EIAOPINION/0001/16

Please no hi-rise un shoreham

Dawn [redacted] 27 October 2016 at 18:56
To: planning@adur-worthing.gov.uk

The new site just gone up is too high and 14 stories will dwarf the rest of the town and ghettoise everything behind it - many of us chose to live on shoreham as an escape and wind down from bustle of Brighton or London where this kind of density belongs - keep our breathing spaces - keep our light, keep our air - the infrastructure cannot support this and there is no need - look at what has happened to Brighton marina - nothing there for the locals

Sent from my iPhone