Comments: Hi, I'm a neighbour to the rear, I was not notified of this development. This has gone from a single story bungalow to a very high development. No e of the other properties overlook my garden (by design) so I wonder why this has been allowed, especially the amendment moving from velux to dorma at the rear. If the case has it been decided I wonder why it is currently being built. I have some other development concerns that I'm happy to speak to a planning officer about. Thanks. Jon Hull
