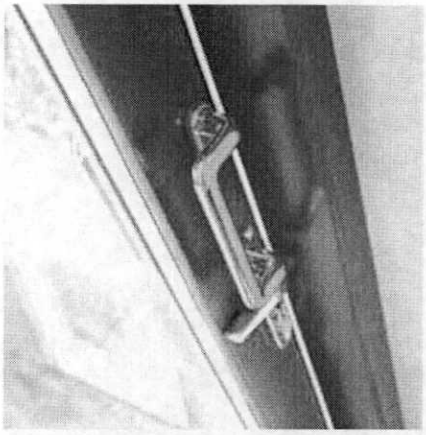
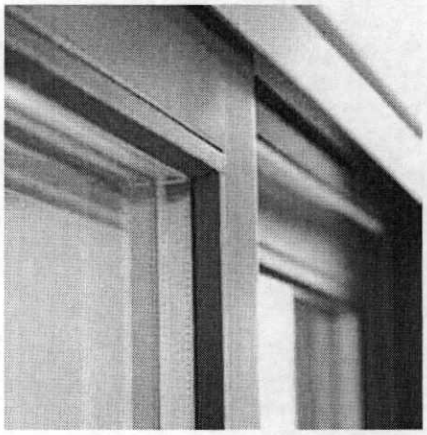
Fenton

Sliding Patio Doorset

The Fenton's attractive slimline frame provides the largest possible glazed area, flooding the property with natural light and creating the airy, spacious feeling which is so popular with today's home buyers.





The Fenton is available as a double and single sliding door and in a wide range of widths and with left-hand, right-hand or double openings, which means it can be specified to suit exact project requirements.

Fenton Design
- Drained and vented externally beaded system
- 165mm Aluminium sill
- 54mm thick door leaves
- FSC certified engineered softwood
- 6-point hook locking system
- Smooth sliding action with the use of nylon runners
- Maximising performance of current glazing technologies to achieve low U Values
- Primed ready for finishing as standard

Hardware
- The Fenton sliding patio door comes with stunning satin fittings as standard

Performance
- U Value of 1.6W/m²K down to 1.0W/m²K TG & 1.3W/m²K DG
- 1.6W/m²K as standard

Glazing
All Fenton doors are fitted with Low E 28mm insulating glass units, manufactured using tempered safety glass in slimline sections.

We also offer the following options:
- Diamond and rectangular leaded designs (proportions may differ from those in our window ranges)
- Georgian or marginal bar-style fretting to provide Simulated Divided Lights, compatible with our window ranges

Fenton Double Slider
To achieve maximum opening width, the Fenton is available in a double sliding option. The continuous head and sill create a neat overall appearance.

Wing Lights (coupled) for Patio Doors
To give you more options when designing your patio doors or conservatory, you can use wing lights in conjunction with any Fenton patio door.

Configuration Options
When ordering, please state whether you would like the left hand or right hand door to slide open when viewed from the outside.

Some Fenton patio doors are available fully factory assembled. Please call us on 01664 503 453 for details.

Important

Only use Hi-Build paint or stain on a JELD-WEN patio doorset.
