Dated : 22nd September 2008

Executive Head of Planning,
Regeneration and Wellbeing

Note: Your attention is drawn to the notes and advice overleaf.

2. No part of the live/work unit hereby approved shall be used as living accommodation other than the live area (bedroom/living–dining/kitchen/shower) as designated on the approved drawings and no part of this accommodation shall be used independently of the work area (live/work studios/sanitary area) as designated on the approved drawings. The live/work area shall not be used for any business use other than fully within use Class B1 and shall not be occupied unless and until the connecting doorway between the accommodation area and the studio as designated in the approved drawings has been provided and this shall be retained thereafter and shall not be blocked up.

   Reason: To retain the business element of the live work unit in the interest of the local economy and character of the area and to ensure a compatible mix of land uses.

3. No part of the live work unit hereby approved shall be occupied unless and until details of the following have been submitted to and approved by the Local Planning Authority and implemented in accordance with any such approval:

   a) Obscure glazing of the two windows in the east elevation of the bedroom and living/dining area as designated on the approved drawings. These windows shall be fixed shut.
   b) Rooflight to serve the bedroom and window and ventilation slot on the south facing gable to serve the living/dining area as designated on the approved drawings.

   All approved measures shall be retained thereafter.

   Reason: To safeguard the amenities of the adjacent residential occupiers and to ensure acceptable living conditions for future occupiers of the live/work unit.

4. Notwithstanding the General Permitted Development Order 1995 as Amended and Uses Classes Order 1987 as Amended (Town and Country Planning Act 1990 As Amended), the front business premises shall not be used for any use other than offices in connection with Use Class B1 or A2, or, Class D1 (a) consulting rooms. For avoidance of doubt, the premises shall not be used as a betting office or shop.

   Reason: To retain a suitable employment use in the interest of the local economy and character of the area and to ensure a compatible mix of land uses.

5. The development shall not commence unless and until details of the new shopfront and treatment of the forecourt have been submitted to and approved by the Local Planning Authority and the development shall not be built other than in accordance with any such approval.

   Reason: In the interest of visual amenity, flood proofing and disabled access.

6. The materials and finishes of the external walls and roof of the works hereby permitted shall match those on the existing building except as approved otherwise in writing by the Local Planning Authority.

   Reason: In the interests of visual amenity.

7. The premises shall not be open for trade or business except between the hours of 8am and 6.30pm Mondays to Saturdays and 9am to 3pm on Sundays or on Bank or Public Holidays.

   Reason: To safeguard the amenities of the occupiers of neighbouring properties.

8. The development shall not be occupied unless and until the refuse, recycling and cycle parking facilities shown on the approved drawings have been provided and they shall be retained thereafter.

   Reason: In the interest of reducing reliance on the car, visual and neighbour amenity, minimising landfill and combating climate change and hygiene.

9. The development shall not be occupied unless and until a scheme for flood proofing the premises has been submitted to and approved by the Local Planning Authority and the development shall not be built other than in accordance with any such approval and they shall be retained thereafter.

   Reason: The premises are sited in a Flood Risk area.
