Reasons for comment:
- Design
- Trees and Landscaping

Comments: Although I am not against the proposal I am nervous about the size of the extension ie- the height and length compared to the height of my garden which is much lower,also the trees at the rear of my garden sit right on the boundary and I wouldn't want them or the roots to be damaged by foundations being dug.also nervous about the finish to the rear of the extension as it is going to be quite imposing and large from my side
