

Works to the Indian Bean Tree are part of ongoing maintenance to retain the tree at a certain size for stability reasons. Tree has multiple fractures and decay pockets in and around lower parts of the stem but is in a healthy state.

Works to the Oak and Eucryphia are for general maintenance and upkeep.

None of the works would be detrimental to the trees nor affect the amenity values.