Comments: I am writing to give my support to the amendments to the Lancing Beach house cafe, as indeed does any resident of Lancing who supports the infrastructure of this little town and welcomes new business into it. The development is a brilliant opportunity for you, the councillors who are supposed to support the local community, to show just how much you are open to the growing economy and feelings of the residents. I, as a resident of Lancing, fully support this business's amendments to the cafe in letting it stay open later and host events for just a mere 15 times a year. I have already booked my wedding venue for next year but if I had known this business was able to host such an event I would have been easily persuaded given the beautiful location and setting, as I'm sure such other brides to be in my position would agree. Just along the coast in Brighton there are bars a plenty to host events and sit on the beach to eat a snack, but what a prize for Lancing it would be to be able to offer a more attractive setting for a venue but also to be able to go for late evening snacks to enjoy nearby. Wake up and smell the coffee councillors and don't let such an opportunity pass you by, it could be a decision you live to regret as you should remember who votes you in, and our opinions are the ones that matter.
