Interested party 1

Comments

This appeal refers to a development which is already being challenged re faults in the Planning procedure. The most important issue is that affected neighbours were not notified of the original development. There are other issues and I am working on a complaint about the Planning Committee and the Chief Executive of the Council. This appeal should not go ahead until the issues raised by myself and others are resolved. Close

Supporting documents

No documents