Hi Amanda

Thank you for this.

I still object to this development.

They are still changing a semi-detached bungalow in to a block of flats.

The noise at night from the first floor flat will make the lives in the adjoining property absolute hell at night.

The sound will travers along the joists and in to rooms of number two.

The residents of the adjoining property do have the right to a peaceful nights sleep!

Also I have not seen any proposed development notices on any post close to this. Why is this?

Yours Sincerely

Terry Beeson
