Reasons for comment:
- Other
- Overdevelopment

Comments: I feel the over development of the roof space will be very unsightly from the road and from our house. I understand others have previously had over ridge dormers done but this one is incredibly large and virtually turns the home in to a stand alone house in a close full of bungalows.

I am also worried about how they intend to remove the existing garage without damaging our newly done garden and fence. The garage is currently on our property border so I don't know how they'd remove it without having access to our garden and without disrupting our privacy during the removal of it.

Yours sincerely
Max Card
