Keith

I have just received information that the appellants wish to withdrawn their cost application that has been sent to you and the appellants agent will be providing us with another at a later date. There is now no need to reply and I will forward you the agents revised one when received.

Regards

Simon Rogerson

Simon,

You sent us a letter dated 31 March stating that the appellant has asked for an award of costs and giving us until 7 April 2010 to make any observations.

The letter has only reached my desk this morning, after your deadline. Can we please have extra time to comment?

Regards

Keith Morgan
