Subject: Totem sign at Waterside Inn AWDM/0103/13 - Found word(s) facebook twitter in the Text body

Dear Lisa/Julie,

Following my site visit and discussion with my team I can confirm that the description will need to be amended as it refers to a replacement sign which this is not. It is a new sign. We can alter this description without the need to readvertise.

It is considered however that the proposed sign cannot be supported in this case. It is overly large with regards to its height and width. It is considered that a lower level sign could be supported. For example the bottom half of the proposed sign at this site. A higher level sign could possibly be supported however this would need to be in the form of a more traditional pub sign on a single pole.

Please could you advise how you wish to proceed. You can withdraw the application and resubmit with the changes as recommended or otherwise the application will be refused.

Yours sincerely,
