CERTIFICATE OF PROPOSED LAWFUL USE OR DEVELOPMENT

TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990: SECTION 192 (AS AMENDED)
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE)(ENGLAND) ORDER 2015; article 39

Application Number : AWDM/0394/24

In pursuance of their powers under the above mentioned act the Worthing Borough Council; hereby notify you that the matter described in the First Schedule hereto in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule hereto and edged red on the plan submitted with this application, was not lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended) and that they REFUSE to issue a Certificate of Proposed Lawful Use or Development under section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason:-

01. The proposed placement of a storage container for commercial purposes would involve a material change of use of the land, which was previously agricultural. Consequently the Local Planning Authority is satisfied that the proposal constitutes 'development' under S55 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), and that it is not lawful under S192 of the Act.

2. If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within:
   28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier
