Dear Mr Lucas

I refer to your email representation received 21 June 2012 in connection with the current planning application at the above property.

I am writing to inform you that amended drawings have been received in connection with the application which can be viewed electronically via the link:-

http://planning.adur-worthing.gov.uk/online-applications/

One of the amendments has been to include an additional window serving a bathroom (contained within an angled recess) in the first-floor west side wall of the proposed dwelling adjacent to the common boundary with your property.

I would be grateful to receive any further representations in connection with this application at your earliest convenience and within 7 days of the date of this email.

Regards,

Jo Morin
Principal Planning Officer
