Re: Full Livery Proprietor and Farm insurance

Dear Annie

With reference to your letter of the 17th September concerning the premiums for the above, I can confirm that we find them acceptable. I would like to make the following comments :-

- The rebuilding value of the large barn stands at £25,000. I do not yet know how much we are investing in the conversion into stables but I would certainly appreciate a correct valuation of the finished article rather than just my 'guesstimate'.
- The field shelter only cost £700 and my builder could erect it in just a few hours, so I think a better estimate of the replacement cost would be £2000.
- I have enclosed a £25 discount voucher from my membership of NFU Countryside. I assumed this could be deducted from the premium so I have done so.

Yours sincerely

Dave Rostron
