Reasons for comment: - Privacy Light and Noise

Comments: I object strongly to this new unit being built due to the noise and disturbance this will create. I worry how the noise of the building being built will impact on me, my family and neighbours. The design and appearance is unsightly. There is already a unit (unit A) I believe that has been vacant for sometime now and hasn't been used for years, so I do not understand why this vacant unit cannot be used instead of building another one that will probably become vacant and not used.

Kind regards
