Dear Peter,

7 THE MEADWAY, SHOREHAM BEACH, WEST SUSSEX BN43 5RH
PLANNING PERMISSION ADC/0256/09

Following the Local Authority granting the above Planning Permission, the applicant has carried out some market research as to how an end user would like to use a house of this type.

The feedback that has been received is that the house layout at ground floor would work better if the front doors were located on the side elevation as per the enclosed drawing number 248/03 revision A.

The overall mass of the house has not changed. The front elevations have undergone some minor alterations, but the overall principles of the design are as per the approved design.

Please let me know if this could be considered a minor amendment? If so we will formally submit a minor amendment for these revisions.

Yours sincerely,

[redacted]
