Reasons for comment:	- Design
Comments:	You are changing the women's only toilets into unisex toilets and yet men's toilets will remain the same. No woman will want to use public unisex toilets as you are inviting men in to use them too. It doesn't matter that there are individual cubicles - a man can do whatever with the cubicle door open (as happened to my young niece in a unisex loo recently). Women and little girls are not safe in this environment. Please rethink the design.

Kind regards
