Attn. Sarah Crease,

I have just viewed the Planning website to see if my correspondence has been uploaded. To my surprise I have just read a letter where Mr Carne claims to had "social gatherings" on his balcony with the neighbours including us. Please can you note not only have we never been on it we don't recall any neighbours either! I only ever see him or maybe with a female companion using it. I also noted the letter from Mrs Stubbs clearly stating he uses it frequently, although she wouldn't find it intrusive as it doesn't overlook her house. However, I do agree he is a pleasant and helpful neighbour, but this is not in question or relevant.

Regards
Daren Robertson
