Dear Ms Baker

15 Firle Road, Lancing, West Sussex. BN15 0NY
Extension and alterations.

Further to our recent telephone conversation in respect of the above.

I have now revised the plans to eliminate the decking to the rear elevation, reduced the width of the side extension but have now added an extension to the rear elevation which will be partially constructed below existing ground level.

Therefore, please find enclosed one coloured copy of drawing no. 29/376/2A incorporating these revisions for your comments.

Also, please could you advise whether planning permission is now required for these revised proposals or whether they would be classed as 'Permitted Development'

I look forward to hearing from you in due course.

Yours sincerely,
