Good Afternoon Peter,

Hope you had a good weekend.

I have noted that there has been an objection to the proposal at 136 Beach Green based upon parking availability.

To comment upon the objection; I can confirm that the property at number 136 does come with an allocated parking space; located to the rear of the main property within the parking area.

The client has kindly provided me with a sketch, attached, of the parking space position.

Kind Regards,

Ben
