Good Morning,

If you would like to change the appearance or design of the building from that approved you would need to submit 2 copies of an amended plan to show the changes for my consideration as to whether this can be considered as a minor amendment.

Thanks
Hannah

Dear Hannah Barker

Mr King will shortly be sending all the details you requested in your e-mail to him on the 15th Dec 09.

If we wanted to add a 2ft 8in personal access door on the south side towards the back of the Lidget Concrete garage we are proposing to use would this require further approval/planning permission from ADC Development Control. We are anxious not to delay the approval process so I though I would seek your advice at this stage. If it does raise any issues then we can proceed without it.

Regards

Peter Still
