Dear Hannah,

Ref AWDM/1388/19

RE 110 Old Fort Rd

I do not object to the planning proposal in principal if the property is to used by the owners as their residence

However the property is advertised on line as Air Bed and Breakfast having accommodation for 17 persons and space for 6 cars with the emphasis on the large hot tub on the patio and listed as being suitable venue for " events"

Accommodation for 17 is without the proposed extension How many beds before the project becomes a business?

There have already been report from neighbours who have been disturbed by people using the hot tub at 3.30 am and we have not yet experienced a summer season

This a residential area and I do not feel that a large B@ B is appropriate use of the property

Yours sincerely

Gwen
