Subject: Planning for Old Bake house 2 High Street Tarring

To Whom It May Concern

I have lived on the High Street for over ten years, and sadly, have spent the last eight of those as a widow. Our street is home to three traditional pubs, which tend to have a more male-oriented atmosphere. As a single women, I feel uncomfortable going into any of them alone.

When Chris mentioned his plans to transform the Bake House into a small pub, I thought it was a brilliant idea. It would offer something completely different in both style and atmosphere - a more welcoming and inclusive space for women and families alike. Many of Chris's female customers and the families who already frequent his salon would undoubtedly support and enjoy this new venture.

I have known Chris for over eight years and have always found him to be hardworking, caring, and ambitious dividual.

I fully support Chris and his family in this exciting new chapter and sincerely hope his application is successful. I, for one, look forward to becoming one of his regulars.

Warm Regards,
Janet
