Comments: Hello. I just read about this application in the local press and wanted to raise a concern. It is almost midnight on Thursday 14th August and as I write this there is excessive noise coming from the factory. Whilst I do not object to the expansion I do wish for tougher rules in terms of operating 24 hrs a day. The night time loading and banging around is not acceptable and my worry is any expansion would make this matter even worse. Many thanks.
