Reasons for comment:
- Design
- Overdevelopment

Comments: Lower extension glass doors are fine.
There is NO mention of the oversized window on the first floor (east elevation) on the notification we have received!
This is directly looking straight into the back of our property and garden. We are currently NOT overlooked with any other surrounding property.
We are not unreasonable but feel this is too big and infringes on our privacy. We too have had building works and had to adjust our plans to accommodate neighbouring properties.
