Reasons for comment:

Comments: After reading carefully through the objections I would like to correct a few things, Firstly 1 neighbour has stated as far as they are concerned there is only 1 occupant living here? Me and my son who lives here which the neighbour see every day, There was 3 occupants but I recently lost my amazing husband [redacted] A few comments about concerns of a workshop being built, There is absolutely no plans to turn that into any kind of business or full time workshop, Yes last year my son did work from home and also spoke to the council about if he was allowed which they said yes because of the pandemic, [redacted] we really did make a big effort to self isolate for the safety for my late husband and son, we sent out letters explaining the situation and he only worked from 10am to 4pm and it really wasn't everyday or as bad as being said, We still have copies of the letters sent, We will also be doing our best to keep it covid safe which is hard as both our neighbours visit each other's house nearly every day so that's a big worry for us, I'm doing this so I'm not alone for the remainder of my life and I'm lucky me son girlfriend are willing to give up there dreams to care for me, Some of these comments seem unfair and somewhat of a attack

Kind regards
