North

Not to scale

T1 Beech: the crown on the north, round to east side is just about touching the client's property. The intended work would be to lift/cut back a full 2m. This would only involve secondary growth and would not be detrimental to the health of the tree.