Reasons for comment:	- Privacy Light and Noise
Comments:	My flat backs on to the carpark and is you would expect noisy during current opening hours with deliveries and customer parking..With this increase of opening hours until nmidnight it will be well into the night before this stops and only a few hours before the early deliveries start up again.When Asda first came here we understood it was a condition regarding limited opening hours and if this is agreed the next step will be open 24 hours.
