(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- [x] Yes
- [ ] No

If yes, please provide details of their name, role, and how they are related:

Amendments Summary

As is usual for churches in the UK, we would like to put up a notice board which would inform our local community that we are their local church, the times of our services and the events that we are offering. Currently, there is little to indicate what we have to offer to our local community in the way of church events and times.
