Comments:	Good morning, Our boundary backs on to the existing Garage, which is planned to be demolished and rebuilt as an extension. Although we have no objection to the design of the new extension, we do have concerns with regards the demolishing and rebuilding of the extension, and the impact and effect it will have on our boundary and garden, during and after the build. So would request some further information and confirmation regarding this. We have photos of the current boundary if required. Thank you.

Kind regards
