Good afternoon Peter,

Our Client will use the Velux Conservation roof light (see photo below)

The roof light will sit flush with the roof tiles and will be the same size as the existing rooflight.

If you need further information, please let me know.

Kind regards,

Louisa Al-Bazaz BA(Hons) DipArch

Dear Mark

With reference to the above application for listed building consent, please could you provide details of the new rooflights to be installed. I would like to know the manufacturer, appearance and whether they will sit lower on the roofslope in a more traditional conservation area style.

Thanks
