Attn: Peter Barnett

Dear Peter,

Tim Loughton MP has asked me to contact you as he has received correspondence from residents of Southwick Square who are unhappy about the proposed extension of hours of opening of Café Cube. Tim's constituents already experience considerable disturbance from the noise generated from Café Cube, and by extending the opening hours to 10.30pm from Monday to Thursday and through to 12.30am on Saturday and 11.00pm on a Sunday, this will severely impact on the quality of life for his constituents.

These opening hours are very late, and I would ask the Council to take my constituents feelings into consideration when reviewing this application. Café Cube is open 7 days a week, and is also open on Bank Holidays, so there is no respite for Tim's constituents.

Kind Regards,

Caroline MacNaughton
