Dear Sir

Re: 1 Browning Road, Lancing, West Sussex BN15 0PY

This development under your reference ADC/0093/08 has started and work is well on its way.

My clients have decided that the extension ought to be squared off at the south-west corner. This will give a better shape and aesthetically it will be more pleasing. In addition they would like to delete the door in the south facing wall and instead have one larger window.

I am writing to ask if you can kindly agree these changes as minor amendments under the existing planning permission. I enclose two copies of drawings with the amendment date 21/05/2009 showing these proposed changes.

Yours sincerely,
