Hi Jo,

Yes, I can confirm that the updated drawing is indeed acceptable. Well done.

Kind regards

To avoid further confusions, I have now cropped the Proposed Double Hinged Secondary Glazing (4) so it does not show the radiator cover under the window anymore. Because the Secondary Glazing Section Detail (2) drawing is in a bigger scale (1:5) the radiator cover was cropped out as I thought it would be unnecessary to show it, and it would not fit on the sheet.
