Gmail by Google

Planning - <planning@adur-worthing.gov.uk>

Re: Demolition of 20 Firle Road and construction of 9 new houses - amended plans - reference AWDM/1942/17

1 message

Jacqui Selby [redacted] 10 June 2019 at 18:34
To: planning@adur-worthing.gov.uk

Dear Mr Peck

Please be advised that our objection still very much stands.

We are absolutely horrified that this should still be ongoing and that the Government could overturn the Councils decision.

Yours faithfully

John and Jacqui Selby 23 Firle Road

Sent from my iPhone

> On 11 Apr 2018, at 19:07, Jacqui Selby [redacted] wrote:
>
>
> Dear Gary Peck
>
> Thank you for your letter of the 27th March 2018.
>
> Our original letter of objection dated the 3rd February 2018 still stands.
>
> Without going into too much detail and detracting from the matter in hand we would like to specifically draw your attention to Firle Road.
>
> Firle Road is a very busy and overused road. It is a particularly narrow road, heavily congested with many parked cars on both sides of the road and as you know has blind bends at both ends.
>
> We are very concerned and we know that we are not alone in these concerns, that the volume of parked traffic has not been properly logged or, indeed, investigated at the relevant times and days for a fair and proper report to be prepared.
>
> As previously stated and so as to not sidetrack, there are many reasons why this building should not go ahead but as previously stated, Firle Road and the surrounding roads cannot cope with any more traffic there are already drainage problems, potholes and pollution.
>
> Yours faithfully,
>
>
> John and Jacqui Selby
>
>
>
>
>
>
>
> Sent from my iPhone