Details of the pre-application advice received

It would have been preferable to leave this simple gabled building as it is when viewed from the street as it sits in a row of similar matching gable properties forming part of the character of the street scene here where substantial properties with traditional appearance and style form the street scene of this part of Buckingham Road.

It is however noted that the adjacent dwelling, no. 40 has had a similar side addition with front dormer. Permitted in 2004 SU/199/04/TP. I would therefore recommend that any similar proposal for a side addition replicates this design in traditional form. This design appears larger and higher than that at no. 40. Also the space of wall between the garage and the dormer above is unbalanced. If you were to continue the ground floor pitched roof this would be an improvement and would give continuity to the building.

The front porch is out of keeping in design and with the traditional style building and would be a prominent, detrimental feature. This should be removed, this style of property with lean to frontage would have traditionally had a recessed front entrance and not a projection. This cannot be supported here.

The rear additions although of a more contemporary style are not considered to be harmful due to being to the rear and not impacting upon the street scene. Materials should be used to match existing where appropriate. There is also a large rear garden with ample distance to the rear boundary. The main properties to be impacted are those either side of the site. Although I haven't visited the site I note that the rear extension is limited to 3.5 metres in depth and it appears from the block plan submitted that no. 40 has a rear addition. Therefore I do not foresee any significant issues here although this will be subject to neighbour notification. I do also note the glazing on the south side elevation, once an application is submitted an assessment can be made as to whether this will result in any overlooking.

The above information is at officer level only and a formal determination is subject to the submission of a Planning Application.

○ Yes ◉ No

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?
