YOUR COMMENTS ON THE CASE

There is a serious issue with parking as the property has multiple occupants some with more than one vehicle. We understand that the tenants are not permitted to park on the property albeit that there is a space to do so. The inconvenience to all the neighbours who park and are either inconvenienced having to carry heavy shopping and the like nou being able to park near their homes. This takes away quiet enjoyment and any benefit living in the vicinity. Some people are considering movin g as it appears that the subsequent planning application is a loophole to plan a further hmo submission.
