Reasons for comment:	- Design - Other
Comments:	This matter has already been through the Planning Committee and a compromise reached with both names being displayed. This application is an attempt to undermine the authority of the Planning Committee and push through an application similar to the original one which was refused. Strong arguments for keeping the historical name "Ropetackle" were placed on the first occasion and accepted as a valid reason for refusing the original application; Basepoint should be admonished for wasting yet more of the Planning Committee's time.
