Comments 20 years ago my husband applied for permission to build a modest architect designed bungalow, tucked away behind our home, in the garden. Permission was refused on the ground that this was a site of AONB. We now have two sheds, one an exceedingly ugly concrete one, in the garden of our next door neighbour, but one. They are in full view as you round the corner on the road.

Unless you indicate below you will not be allowed to speak at the Committee meeting:-
