Biodiversity net gain

Biodiversity net gain is a legal requirement for planning permission introduced on 12 February 2024. All applications are required to either provide detailed information proving there will be a biodiversity increase; or explain why the requirement does not apply to the development.

Find out more about biodiversity net gain, and access digital tools from our partners that can help determine if you are exempt, or produce the biodiversity metric information required.

Do you believe that, if the development is granted permission, the general Biodiversity Gain Condition (as set out in Paragraph 13 of Schedule 7A of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended)) would apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

Biodiversity net gain has been introduced as a general condition for planning permission. As set out in The Environment Act 2021: "grants of planning permission in England [are] to be subject to a condition to secure that the biodiversity gain objective is met". Therefore, in England, all planning permissions are generally subject to biodiversity gain rules, unless they are specifically exempt or out of scope.

If you have stated that the biodiversity net gain requirement does not apply to your application you must provide the reason(s) why, and may also need to supply evidence (especially where you believe the application is eligible for the 'de minimis' exemption).

You can use our partner's free online tool to determine if you are exempt and to produce detailed reasons

Please add all the reasons why biodiversity net gain does not apply and enter a justification for each one

Reason biodiversity net gain does not apply:
Development subject to the de minimis exemption (development below the threshold)

What best describes the size of your site?:
Under 25 square metres

Please justify the reason why biodiversity net gain does not apply:
Material changes to existing structures and decorative materials not impacting the site or surrounding area.

Note: Please read the help text for further information why developments may be exempt or not in scope.

Details of the pre-application advice received

We are currently in the final stages of negotiating the lease for the above property with ADC. We have been asked to complete some works on the property as part of that lease and want to check if they require planning permission, which we hope will be covered as in incidental enquiry. We suspect the first two items will need planning but am unsure about the third.

1. Replacing the existing external wooden decorative cladding with uPVC/Composite cladding in grey
2. Moving a converted 20 shipping from the rear of the building (north) to the front where it will be used as a kitchen.
3. Replacing rotten decking on the first floor balcony with either wooden or composite decking.

Dear Simon

Thanks for your email.

I consider that items 1 and 2 require planning permission.

Item 3 may not need permission if it is a straightforward repair but a new balcony/deck will need permission (i.e. the existing is removed and a new one erected).

The balcony is a repair, but it is the entire flooring element that needs relacing although none of the joists etc will be altered.

Hi Simon

Perhaps you could provide details of the colour and appearance of the decking once it is known so we can check if it is deemed to be a material change in appearance.

I think it would be as we are considering a composite material to replace the existing wood to provide a more stable surface and longevity of life.

Hi

I would add this to your application in that case.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:
(a) a member of staff
(b) an elected member
(c) related to a member of staff
(d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

◯ Yes
⊘ No

⊘ No

⊘ Yes
◯ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate B

⊘ I have/The applicant has given the requisite notice to everyone else (as listed below) who, on the day 21 days before the date of this application, was the owner* and/or agricultural tenant of any part of the land or building to which this application relates; or
