Appeals to the Secretary of State

1. Where, on application being made for consent under these Regulations, consent is refused by the Local Planning Authority or is granted by them subject to conditions, the applicant may appeal to the Secretary of State.

   Provided that the Secretary of State shall not be required to entertain an appeal under these Regulations if it appears to him, having regard to the provision of these Regulations, that consent for the display of advertisements in respect of which application was made could not have been granted by the Local Planning Authority, or could not have been granted otherwise than subject to the conditions imposed by them.

2. Any person who desires to appeal under these Regulations shall give notice of appeal in writing to The Planning Inspectorate, 3/17 Eagle Wing, Temple Quay House, 2 The Square, Temple Quay, Bristol, BS1 6PN, within eight weeks from the date of receipt of notification of the Local Planning Authority's decision, or such longer period as the Secretary of State may allow and shall furnish to the Planning Inspectorate a copy of the following documents:-

3. The Secretary of State may, if he thinks fit, require the applicant or the Local Planning Authority to submit within a specified period a further statement in writing in respect of any of the matters to which the appeal relates, and if, after considering the grounds of the appeal and any such further statement, the Secretary of State is satisfied that he is sufficiently informed for the purpose of reaching a decision as to the matters to which the appeal relates, and with the agreement in writing of the Appellant and the Local Planning Authority, he may decide the appeal without further investigation; but otherwise the Secretary of State shall, if either party so desire, afford to each of them an opportunity of appearing before and being heard by a person appointed by the Secretary of State for the purpose.

4. Where an appeal is brought under these Regulations from a decision of the Local Planning Authority the Secretary of State may allow or dismiss the appeal or may reverse or vary any part of the decision of the Local Planning Authority, whether or not the appeal relates to that part, and deal with the application as if it had been made to him in the first instance.

5. Where the Local Planning Authority fails to notify the applicant within eight weeks from the date of receipt of the application, the provisions of paragraphs 1. and 2. above shall apply in relation to the application as if consent had been refused by the Local Planning Authority.

THIS DECISION IS ISSUED UNDER THE TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990 AND TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (CONTROL OF ADVERTISEMENTS) REGULATIONS 2007 AND DOES NOT CONVEY ANY CONSENT OR APPROVAL WHICH MAY BE REQUIRED UNDER THE BUILDING ACT AND BUILDING REGULATIONS.
