Last week I held a residents meeting in Southwick to hear about their serious concerns regarding the longstanding Southern Water and flooding issues in the area.

I was pleased to be joined by local Labour Councillors, Robina Baine, Jude Harvey, and Andy Harvey, as well as representatives from Southern Water.

Unfortunately, West Sussex County Council chose not to send a representative despite being the local lead flood authority.

Thank you to everyone who attended the meeting and spoke to me about the flooding issues in Southwick.
