Hello,

I would like to email to express my concern in the above application and hope the planning application will be rejected. For as long as the "goring/ Ferring gap" has been around, it has been a lovely green space for residents and people visiting the area. We are severely lacking in green space in Sussex (especially around this area) and it would be a shame to lose the tranquil and picturesque countryside to this monstrosity. I fear the previous plans for housing will always be main goal for this land and this is just a decoy. There are various other food and drink establishments situated either side of this and public toilets nearby. The land is already being used for these purposes whilst the application is being considered and it is lowering the tone of the area.

Thanks

Kirsty
