to me
Hi Gerald

Your client paid for a 'Do I Need Permission' enquiry, and a (paid for) pre application enquiry involving the Council's Heritage Advisor would be necessary to engage in discussion about whether the proposal outlined in your email would be supported or not. <https://www.adur-worthing.gov.uk/planning/applications/do-i-need-permission/#pre-application-advice>

In my view, the introduction of a half round tile on the party wall would result in a material alteration to the appearance of the building that would require an application for planning permission (in addition to listed building consent). Permitted development rights here have been removed by an Article 4 Direction.

The application(s) would need to be supported by a Heritage Statement. As a bare minimum (in accordance with the NPPF) the Heritage Statement should identify the architectural and/or historic significance of the designated heritage asset and provide an assessment of the impact of the proposal on that 'significance'. I would suggest a Heritage Statement on this basis would also be helpful if your client decides to make a pre application enquiry.

Authority Employee/Member

With respect to the Authority, is the applicant and/or agent one of the following:

- (a) a member of staff
- (b) an elected member
- (c) related to a member of staff
- (d) related to an elected member

It is an important principle of decision-making that the process is open and transparent.

For the purposes of this question, "related to" means related, by birth or otherwise, closely enough that a fair-minded and informed observer, having considered the facts, would conclude that there was bias on the part of the decision-maker in the Local Planning Authority.

Do any of the above statements apply?

- ☐ Yes
☒ No

Ownership Certificates

Certificates under Regulation 6 - Planning (Listed Buildings and Conservation Areas) Regulations 1990

Please answer the following questions to determine which Certificate of Ownership you need to complete: A, B, C or D.

Is the applicant the sole owner of all the land to which this application relates; and has the applicant been the sole owner for more than 21 days?

- ☒ Yes
- ☐ No

Certificate Of Ownership - Certificate A

I certify/The applicant certifies that on the day 21 days before the date of this application nobody except myself/the applicant was the owner (owner is a person with a freehold interest or leasehold interest with at least 7 years left to run) of any part of the land or building to which the application relates.
