1.13 the references to the parties named in this Deed include their successors in title and assigns and in the case of the Council shall include any successor in function

2. STATUTORY PROVISIONS

2.1 This Deed is made under Section 106 of the Act and the undertaking in this Deed is given by the Owner subject to the provisions hereinafter contained

2.2 In this Deed the covenants by the Owner as the freehold owner of the Application Site are in favour of the Council and constitute planning obligations for the purposes of Section 106 of the Act and shall be enforceable by the Council as the local planning authority in accordance with the provisions of Section 106 against the Owner and any person deriving title from the Owner

2.3 The obligations contained in and created by this Deed shall not take effect unless and until the Planning Permission shall have been issued and Commencement of Development shall have taken place

2.4 The obligations on the part of the Owner shall bind the Application Site and every part thereof

2.5 No party shall be liable for breach of covenant or obligation contained in this Deed after the party has parted with all the party's interest in the Application Site or the part in respect of which such breach occurs but without prejudice to liability for any subsisting breach of covenant or obligation arising prior to that party parting with such interest

2.6 No person who is not a party to this Deed ("third party") has or shall have any rights under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999 to enforce any term under this Deed and no consent of any third party shall be required under that Act to any cancellation or variations of this Deed

2.7 In the event that the Planning Permission shall expire before Commencement of Development or shall at any time be revoked then the undertaking contained in this Deed shall be deemed to be discharged and have no further effect

2.8 This Deed shall be registrable by the Council as a local land charge

2.9 The Owner shall pay to the Council on completion of this Deed the reasonable legal costs incurred by the Council in checking the Owner's title and approving the Deed

3. COVENANTS BY THE OWNER

The Owner covenants with the Council that:-

3.1 notwithstanding the grant of the Planning Permission any part of the Application Site permitted to be used for retail purposes under Class A1 of the Use Classes Order will not be Occupied by any trade or business other than by a Discount Retailer

3.2 it will serve written notice on the Council within 7 days after the relevant date to inform it of the date of the Occupation of the Application Site by a retailer permitted to trade from the Application Site by virtue of the provisions of clause 3.1 of this Deed

3.3 it will advertise and market the Tower as being available for letting or purchase for business purposes or use (within the meaning of Class B1(A) of the Use Classes Order) for a period of twelve months from the date of the issue by the Council of the written decision notice constituting the grant of the Planning Permission

3.4 in the event of a letting of the majority of the floorspace within the Tower it will undertake to commence as soon as reasonably practicable after the exchange or completion (as the case may be) of the documentation securing such letting a refurbishment of such part or parts of the Tower as is necessary in order to facilitate such letting

3.5 the Discount Retailer permitted to Occupy the Application Site pursuant to clause 3.1 of this Deed shall not provide the following at the Application Site:-

3.5.1 the sale of newspapers or magazines;

3.5.2 a fresh meat counter;

3.5.3 a fresh fish counter;

3.5.4 a bakery;

3.5.5 a delicatessen;

3.5.6 a pharmacy; or
