TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING ACT 1990: SECTION 192 (AS AMENDED)
TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (DEVELOPMENT MANAGEMENT PROCEDURE)(ENGLAND) ORDER 2015; article 39

Application Number: AWDM/1487/24

The Adur District Council hereby certify that on 20/11/2024 (reference AWDM/1487/24), the matter described in the First Schedule hereto in respect of the land specified in the Second Schedule hereto and edged red on the plan submitted with this application, would have been lawful within the meaning of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended), for the following reason:-

01. The proposed siting of a mobile home within the curtilage of the dwelling house and its use as a granny annex for a dependent relative, in accordance with the terms described in the Planning Statement and plans accompanying the application, does not constitute development requiring planning permission and is lawful within section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

Notes

a) This certificate is issued solely for the purposes of section 192 of the Town and Country Planning Act 1990 (as amended).

b) It certifies that the matter specified in the First Schedule taking place on the land described in the Second Schedule would have been lawful, on the specified date, and thus, would not have been liable to enforcement action under section 172 of the 1990 Act on that date.

c) This certificate applies only to the extent of the matter described in the First Schedule and the land specified in the Second Schedule and identified on plan submitted with the application. Any matter which is materially different from that described or which relates to other land may render the owner or occupier liable to enforcement action.

d) The effect of the certificate is also qualified by the proviso in section 192(4) of the 1990 Act, as amended, which states that the lawfulness of a described use or operation is only conclusively presumed where there has been no material change, before the use is instituted or the operations begun, in any of the matters relevant to determining such lawfulness.

2. If an enforcement notice is served relating to the same or substantially the same land and development as in your application and if you want to appeal against your local planning authority's decision on your application, then you must do so within:
   28 days of the date of service of the enforcement notice, or within 6 months (12 weeks in the case of a householder appeal) of the date of this notice, whichever period expires earlier

3. Further correspondence about this application should quote the application number.

4. Where this notice conveys the granting of a certificate, please note that the decision does not purport to convey planning permission nor any consent or approval which may be required under the Public Health Acts, the Building Regulations, or any other legislation.
