Reasons for comment: - Design

Comments: There seems to be no mention of the size of the signs, or where they are on or around the building. If they are small and discrete, I don't have any objection. In my view there should not be signs on the front elevation, as this is the most attractive feature of the building. Are these two signs in addition to the six signs in application AWDM/0828/13? If so, then a total of eight signs is too many.
